The 2019 Global Democracy Lab

by Democracy Without Borders and the World Parliament Experiment associations.

We invite you to participate in a unique multi-media course on Political Advocacy and Leadership in global democracy. The course is aimed at activists interested in using modern concepts of leadership as supported by professional coaches (including licensed material from Harvard University, Institute for Leadership Development, Forum for Creative Leadership 9.0, and others).

CONTENTS

Day-by-Day Overview (schedule flexible):

Monday: Introduction to course concept, participants, coaches, voting tool, course projects, basic ideas, and start of supervised project work

Tuesday: Theory and practice of leadership (Transformational Leadership, Leadership by Negotiation, Post-conventional Leadership, WeQ, Political Advocacy etc.)

Wednesday: Leadership as mastery of life, intensive project work with coaching and supervision

Thursday: Leadership 9.0 and the New Global Enlightenment, leading in complex global systems

Freitag: End of political votes, presentation of course results, de-briefing and outlook to possible new project phases

There will be two course weeks, one with universities and a second one with non-profit organizations as the two main target groups. Participation in both weeks is possible and also desirable as different aspects will be covered. For dates, see below.

The course is based on an updated version of the multi-media course "Leadership" by Dr. Rasmus Tenbergen for German universities.¹ A special emphasis will be given to a voting tool for global issues.²

In addition, the following concepts play a role:

- Mastery of Life³
- Macht ist geil - wenn es helle Macht ist (nach Dr. Thomas Fritzsche, in German)
- Systemisches (Projekt-) Management in der VUKA-Welt (nach Thorsten Klaus, in German)
- Service Learning
- New Leadership 9.0⁴

Details and updates will be available soon on: www.world-parliament.org.
